8 The recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor to the grant of two years extension of service to Sri. F.P. Das from 26.11.49 is for orders.

9 It is usual to grant an extension of service for one year at a time. But on a previous occasion Mr. F.C. Rollo, and Mr. Mackintosh were granted an extension of service for a period of 2 years. (Vide G.O.No. 2413-44 (C.B. 74-38-17 dated 26.1.1939 and 28 66-67 (C.B. 91-45-5 dated 20.1.41 respectively) The confidential reports of these are placed below. Submitted for orders. C.

25.5.49. 11) The recommendation of the vice-chancellor is that Sri J.P. Das, Professor of Electrical Engineer and Principal, College of Engineering, may be granted extension of Service for two years with effect from 26.11.1949., the the date of this superannuation.

(2) Under Sect. 305 (a) of the M.S.R. an officer in superior service who has attained the age of 55 years, may be required to retire, unless Govt. considers him efficient and permits him to remain in the Service. Sect. 308 (b) says, inter alia that Govt. have delegated the powers specified in cl. (a) (i) of the Act to the officers specified in Appendix O & to the following officers.) The extension of time granted by them shall not exceed one year at a time and will be repeated only when the subordinate continues efficient. It is perhaps on the basis of this Act, that officers are granted extension of service of one year at a time.

(3) There are instances in the University in which officers have been granted extension of service for a period of two years at a time. Mr J.C. Rollo was granted extension of service for a period of two years for the reasons that it was considered necessary that he should be in charge of the college for some some appreciable time longer, being a Principal of much experience, especially as Mr Eagleton, Prof. of English, is new to the work and requires the guidance of a senior Professor. Again Mr. A.B. Mackintosh, Prof of English and Principal, Central College, was also granted extension of service for two years at a time as it was considered that it was extremely undesirable to lose the services of Mr Mackintosh who had made an excellent Prof. of English and Principal, specially at a time when it ~~was~~ was difficult to obtain suitable hands from abroad and that men of this experience and character are not so easy to get nowadays.

14) The Vice-Chancellor has explained the reasons in paras 2, 3, 4 and 5 of his letter for granting two years extension of service to Sri J. P. Das. Sr.

15) In the circumstances explained, the proposal of the Vice-Chancellor is for consideration and orders.

Final Note by the Minister for Education

Subject.— Proposal to retire from service or grant an extension of service of Sri. J.P. Das, Professor of Electrical Engineering and Principal, School of Engineering, from the date of his superannuation, viz., 26-11-1949.

Sri. J.P. Das, who is also placed in charge of the office of Principal, College of Engineering (pending his permanent appointment as Principal which is separately under consideration in Council), will attain the age of superannuation on 26-11-1949. The Vice-Chancellor, who was consulted regarding the retirement from service or otherwise of the officer, has recommended the grant of two years' extension of service for the reasons set forth in his letter dated 24-5-1949, an extract of which is given below:

> " Sri. J.P. Das possesses high academical qualifications combined with wide experience. Before entering Government Service, he was working in the General Electric Company of New York and the International General Electric Company of India, Bombay. He has had varied and intensive practical experience for over 9 years in responsible capacity in the different factories of the General Electric Company of U.S.A. and its associated companies manufacturing equipment of different kinds. He has worked in France, Belgium, Brazil and the United States of America. This experience has stood him in good stead as a Professor and will be of great help as Principal to which post he has been recently appointed.
> Now that Government is seriously thinking of giving new orientation to Technical Education in the State as well as co-ordinating the work of the several institutes and providing for expansion according to a definite scheme, the services of an experienced Professor and Principal will be of great help.
> Sri. Das is quite strong and healthy and he can continue in service for two more years in the interest of the institutions entrusted to him. Further, he has put in only 19 years' of service and is not entitled to full pension. This would seriously affect his financial position as he would be only entitled to a pension of less than 1/3 of his salary.

I may also point out that there is nobody in the College who is competent to succeed him as Principal. The seniormost officer is Sri C.Gopala-Krishnan who has no foreign experience and in my opinion has not the administrative ability to fill the post of Principal."

Instances also are not wanting in the University wherein officers have been granted extension of service for a period of two years at a time.

The matter was considered at a Meeting of the Council held on 21-6-1949, when the following resolution was recorded:

> "Sri J.P.Das, Professor of Electrical Engineering and Principal, School of Engineering, may be granted extension of service of two years."

I solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to the resolution of the Council.
